Super Lawyers

Ms. Pollock is a certified specialist in employment and labor law. She advises public and private employers in matters involving leave and discipline issues, personnel policy matters and labor negotiations and arbitrations. When necessary, she defends them in state and federal court. She has experience representing clients before various governmental administrative agencies including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, the State Personnel Board of Review, the State Employment Relations Board and the Ohio Department of Education. Stacy also advises clients on workers' compensation matters and regularly appears before the Industrial Commission. She also has considerable experience in education law, representing schools and school administrators involving employee and student disciplinary matters.

Prior to working in private practice, she worked as a staff attorney with the Ohio Legislative Service Commission in its state and local government sections.
