nhart@mrrlaw.com

Ms. Hart advises and advocates for clients of MRR Law on a wide range of legal matters related to liability defense. With a professional background in insurance and transportation, she represents clients in auto and commercial trucking, construction litigation, general liability, and professional liability. She also practices with the firm's attorneys specializing in appellate litigation.

Prior to joining MRR Law, Natalie was an attorney advisor for the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, where she researched regulation and statutes, reviewed case files and hearing records, drafted decisions based on applicable law, performed reviews of appeals and provided legal advice to field office personnel.

Natalie has conducted insurance claims investigations and analyzed risk potential for transportation carriers. She has assisted with insurance defense, preparing motions, pleadings, discovery, settlement documents and court filings. Natalie has litigation team experience in commercial property tax and worker's compensation defense, complaint preparation, pleadings, motions, discovery, docket hearings, case law research and court filings.
