Ms. Melia is an associate attorney at MRR Law. Her law practice focuses on the representation of clients in a wide range of service areas, including auto and commercial trucking, commercial law, construction litigation, general liability, insurance coverage and bad faith, and professional liability.

Prior to joining MRR Law, Jenna was a litigation attorney at a sophisticated firm, where she gained a breadth of experience in defending professionals, including lawyers and home inspectors, in liability matters throughout the State of Ohio. In this regard, Ms. Melia was responsible for, among others, conducting legal research, analyzing grounds for dispositive and non-dispositive motions practice, formulating defense strategies, taking and defending depositions, participating in mediations and court conferences, and trial preparation.

As a law student, Jenna served as a judicial extern in the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas to the Honorable Stuart A. Friedman, and served as a member and Executive Editor for The Cleveland State Law Review.
